COAST GUARD MEN LAND IN SHANGHAI

British Battalion Cheered as it Marched Through Streets of City, Says Dispatch

Extremist Agitation in Shanghai Growing; Wuhu Protest
From United States

Shanghai, March 11.—The second battalion of the British Coastguard was landed at Shanghai to-day.

Vice-Admiral Sir Reginald Tyrwhitt, commander of the British naval forces in Chinese waters, and Major-General John Duncan, head of the British Shanghai defence force, took the salute at the entrance of the British consulate, where most of the British residents had gathered.

As the Guardsmen swung by they were given rousing cheers. A mixed crowd of Chinese and foreigners lined the Bund and the Nanjing Road, through which the route to their barracks lay.

A heavy rain was falling.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

London, March 11.—Rumors of threatened attacks on British military authorities in Shanghai, as a dispatch to The London Daily Express, led to sudden precautionary measures yesterday. Among them was the posting of international police outside the general military headquarters and hotels where some of the commanders are quartered.

Extremist agitation in Shanghai is reported to be growing; special dispatches saying Wednesday's raid on the headquarters of the Postal Workers' Union forestalled a plan to attack the police stations.

MISSION LOOTED

Looting at the inland mission station at Luchow near Chungking is told of in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Hongkong.

Southern troops are reported to be concentrated thirteen miles below Wuhu, and advancing on both sides of the Yangtze River, large numbers crossing to the north bank.

MISSIONARIES LEAVE

Reports from Ichang are that a few more missionaries have evacuated posts up the Yangtze River.

The Exchange Telegraph dispatch says it is reported a French steamer sailed from Shanghai yesterday searched at Wansheng was found to contain arms and ammunition.

U.S. PROTEST

Shanghai, March 11.—The United States consul-general at Hankow was drawing up a protest to-day for presentation to the Cantonese authorities against excesses in the city of Wuhu after it had been occupied by Cantonese soldiers several days ago. United States mission property was looted in the course of the disturbance.

RAINS DELAY TROOPS

There have been no military movements of moment along the front south and west of Shanghai, heavy rains making operations impossible.
Gunmen fired by local labor extremists killed a number of loyal workers yesterday. The Chinese foreman of a Japanese cotton mill was shot and killed while on his way to work. A Chinese detective at another mill was killed.

MILL WORKERS STRIKE

Two thousand workers in one cotton mill have gone on strike because the manager removed from the walls posters advocating a labor government and urging the murder of loyal workers. In another mill workers struck in protest against the firing of a worker for carelessness.

FIGHTING IN HONAN

Peking, March 11.—Six hundred wounded soldiers have arrived at Peking, indicating the fighting in Honan is developing on a large scale. Under cover of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin's artillery, the Northerners are continuing to cross the Yellow River despite strong opposition from the forces of General Chin Yun-Ao, civil governor of Honan, and General Wang Hui-Cheng. These two generals are nominally supporters of General Wu Pei-Fu. Chihli leader, although not definitely lined up with the Southerners. The Northerners, however, must deal with the forces of General Chin and General Wang before coming in contact with the Cantonese Nationalists or Southerners.

Chicago, March 11.—One fireman was killed and several were injured, possibly fatally, in a terrific explosion which occurred during a fire in the plant of the Delinger Chemical Company here to-day. The fireman killed was E. Hansen of Engine Company No. 5.

Mill Bay Soldiers' Home for the construction and endowment of a new wing for the treatment of the children of ex-service men in perpetuity.

PEKING RECEIVES SOVIET WARNING

Chinese Told if Arrested Russian Couriers Harmed Action
Will Follow

Shanghai, March 11.—Russia's second note in connection with the seizure by Northern Chinese forces of the Soviet steamship Pamiat Le-nina, is a strongly worded document.
It warns the Peking Government that any violation of the safety of the couriers arrested when the ship was seized will compel the Soviet Government to take exceptional measures.

TREATED WELL

Shanghai, March 11.—The Chinese foreign affairs commissioner, Mr.
Tsinanfu telegraphed to-day that the Russian couriers and Madame Bo-rodina, who was arrested with them on the Soviet steamship Pamiat Le-nina, are safe and are receiving good

Bate Inlet Trapper Put End to His Life

Powell River, B.C., March 11.—
When Charles Pierce, a trapper of Mich Creek on Bate Inlet, north of here, failed to make his periodical trip to Powell River for supplies provincial police sent an officer to investigate, who found the body lying in a cabin with the face blown away and a rifle lying beside his body. Pierce had last been seen on December 17, when he complained of being in poor health. The officer, who buried the trapper's body near his cabin, said death had occurred about two months ago.

Bill For States

Premier, Threatening to Resign,
Asks if Wrecking of Party Necessary

Melbourne, March 11.—Stanley M.
Bruce, Prime Minister of Australia, threatened to resign when gathering opposition on the state rights bill threatened his Government with defeat.

"Is it necessary, however," he asked, "to wreck a party if an individual is not wanted?"
Despite twenty defections, the Government was sustained by a majority of six on the bill, which proposes to readjust the system by which per capita contributions have been made by the Commonwealth to the states since confederation in 1901. The original scheme, known as the "Braddon Plan," was approved for only ten years, but no alternative has been devised since,
and the contributions have continued.

Vancouver, March 11.—A. C. Mc-Dougall & Sons submitted the lowest of eight tenders for construction of the new Union College at the Uni-shortly to award the contract.

Seven other tenders were received.

RIVER FLOODS IN FRANCE CAUSE LOSS

Greatest Damage so Far Done in Southwestern Part of Country

Paris, March 11.—Reaching the proportions of a disaster, the floods in southwestern France are spreading. Rivers in other parts of the country are rising rapidly and the authorities now say that, barring a cessation of the rain, of which there appears no likelihood, tributaries of the Seine and Marne will shortly overflow.

The situation in the environs of Bordeaux is critical, the inhabitants being driven to upper stories of their homes by the water. Further up stream, the Garonne has converted the plains of Bergerac into a vast lake and the road between Marseille and Toulouse is completely submerged.

A number of villages on the banks of the River Lot had to be evacuated. The steeply of a sixteenth century church at Jorrenlain, in the Department of Gers, collapsed yesterday. Its foundation had been undermined by the persistent rains. No one was hurt.

GOLD IS FOUND IN COLORADO

Denver, Col., March 11.—Three Colorado miners, working with hand tools amid quiet scenes directly the opposite of those which have marked the recent stampede to Weepah, Nevada, as the result of the discovery of gold there, have uncovered deposits of ore containing the yellow metal which may rival the ultimate production of the Nevada camp.

The steeply of a sixteenth century church at Jorrenlain, in the Department of Gers, collapsed yesterday. Its foundation had been undermined by the persistent rains. No
one was hurt.

PENNSYLVANIA BOMBERS GOT $100,000 SUM

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 11.—Blowing up an armored truck with a bomb while it was en route to the Pittsburgh Terminal Co. Company's Covadale mine this afternoon, nine armed bandits escaped in an automobile with the payroll, estimated to amount to $100,000. The driver of the truck and two guards were badly injured.

The automobile had proceeded from a Pittsburgh bank along the Liberty Road, a main highway in Bethel Township, and had turned into a side road to enter the mining camp when the explosion occurred. The bomb set off just as the armored car was going through a passage under a railroad line, wrecked the automobile.

The robbers grabbed the payroll and sped away in an automobile parked nearby.

FISHING COMPANY SHOWS YEAR'S PROFIT

B.C. Fishing and Packing Co.
Issues Balance Sheet to Its Shareholders

Vancouver, March 11.—The balance sheet of the British Columbia Fishing and Packing Company Limited was issued to the shareholders to-day, and shows the net profits of the company for the year were $145,267, plus $154, 933 in respect of the company's share of the Wallace Fisheries, making the total net profit $300,204.

The balance sheet gives the total capital stock issued at $4,800,000, so the net profit for the year was approximately ten per cent.

In a statement issued over the signature of the secretary it is said: "It must be borne in mind that our interests in the Wallace Fisheries Limited profits is at present not available for dividend purposes, so the company is not in a position to pay until it has built up a large cash surplus."

As a result of this statement the price of British Columbia Fishing and Packing stock on the Eastern stock exchanges to-day broke nine points.

MARKETING SUGGESTION MADE AT CONVENTION OF TECHNICAL AGRICULTURISTS

Vancouver, March 11.—A comprehensive paper on "Livestock Marketing," read by George G. Hay, district agriculturist at Kamloops, featured Thursday's session of the provincial branch of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists, in convention at the University of British Columbia.

The outlet for Canadian livestock,
Mr. Hay stated, had been through three channels, the United States, British and domestic markets. The first-named had been practically closed by the Fordney tariff and would likely not be reopened, while Great Britain was capable and willing to take all Canada's surplus.
Third channel, the domestic market, absorbed eighty-five per cent. of the yearly beef output, but fell far short of its possibilities as a real stimulus to cattle improvement.

YOW YUEN, CHINESE, ACCUSED OF IMPORTING FORBIDDEN DRUGS INTO B.C.

Vancouver, March 11.—An echo of the case of Charles Marino, who was sentenced to a three-year term in the New Westminster penitentiary in connection with a trunk containing 300 tins of opium, Yow Yuen, Chinese merchant, was arraigned before Magistrate H. C. Shaw in the police court here to-day on a charge of importing narcotics. He elected for a summary trial.

The trunk in the Marino case plays a principal part in the charge against Yow Yuen, the Chinese being accused of importing it and the narcotics it allegedly contained. Two other informations laid by the prosecution and held in abeyance accuse the Chinese of causing the trunk and contents to be carried from the C.P.R.
dock here to the Hotel Vancouver and promising to pay Customs and Excise Officer A. E. Friesebe four dollars per tin of opium to induce him to neglect his duties by permitting importation of narcotic drugs.

Adjournment until next Thursday afternoon was taken shortly after noon. When direct examination of Customs Officer Friesebe was concluded.

OFFER DESCRIBED

Friesebe testified to Yow Yuen making his acquaintance December 26, 1925, while he was on gangplank duty at the liner Empress of Australia here. At the invitation of the accused, he said, he visited the latter and his store on several occasions and was ultimately made a proposal to co-operate in the export of firearms to China. Witness said he acquainted his superior officer, R. F.
McLaughlin, inspector of examiners,
and was told to continue under his direction.

This alleged proposal, Friesebe said, fell through owing to the high price of machine guns in Seattle and the cost of smuggling them into Canada.

WITH BAGGAGE

Yow Yuen, the witness testified, then made a proposal to import opium. This resulted, he said, in the cost of smuggling them into Canada.

SUPPORT FOR CABINET

The convention so far has offered a striking contrast to the hectic proceedings of the Conservative assembly last fall. While the Conservative Party at Kamloops found it difficult to hold its own in the face of the opposition, the Liberal Party warring for the leadership, complete harmony reigns in the Liberal ranks.
Neither on the surface of the proceedings nor behind the scenes is there any suggestion of serious discontent with the present administration of the party's affairs by Premier Oliver and his colleagues. If the Cabinet wanted a mandate to carry on from the forces of provincial Liberalism, it has received it in no uncertain voice—the voice of more than 300 picked delegates representing every corner of British Columbia and every section of the provincial Liberal Party.

MURDER CHARGES AGAINST WOMAN

Mrs. Diana Lacroix, Who Kept
"Baby Farm," Appears in Quebec Court

Hull, Que., March 11.—The prosecution closed its case to-day in the preliminary hearing in the Hull police court before Judge Roland Miller of the charge against Mrs. Diana Lacroix, South Hull baby farm keeper, of having on or about February 10
last at her establishment murdered Baby Villeneuve.

At the request of Prosecuting Attorney F. B. Macdonald, the case was remanded until next Friday, when Major intimated two other murder charges which had been preferred against Mrs. Lacroix in connection with the deaths of two other children at her home in January would be proceeded with.

Forward-looking Policies Are Outcome of Provincial Government Party Convention in Vancouver; Key- note Speech of the Assembly to Be Delivered by Premier Oliver at Banquet To-night

Special to The Times

Vancouver, March 11.—Liberals of British Columbia, assembled in convention here, are building a programme of constructive policies which will vitally affect every department of life in this Province.

After a day and a half of intensive work the delegates in effect had laid down a new platform for the Liberal Party when they adjourned for the noon recess to-day. The industrial advancement of the Province, the protection of its people by social legislation and the better education of its youth all were covered in the vigorous debates of policy laid down by the convention. In a word, the assembly has pledged the Liberal Party to a courageous course of constructive work, in marked contrast to the barren and contradictory resolutions of the Conservative Party's Kamloops convention last fall.

After working all yesterday until a late hour at night on resolutions outlining the party's policies, the delegates reassembled this morning in private session to discuss matters of organization.
This session was designed also to give the delegates a full opportunity to air individual complaints about party affairs at what was described as a family conference.

These complaints, however, proved to be of a minor character, and the session adjourned without serious dispute on any question of policy.

The delegates were in the middle of organization plans when they adjourned, to reassemble later and perfect arrangements for strengthening the party.

This afternoon the convention will also tackle the problems of amalgamating the Liberal and the Great Eastern Railway. The resolutions committee will ask the delegates to face the campaign fund situation boldly with a resolution in favor of the publication of all campaign fund contributions and opposing the acceptance of funds from any questionable source.

On the P.E.G.E. problem the resolutions committee will sponsor a plan whereby the government-owned line would be extended to Prince George and North Vancouver next year if efforts to sell it should fail in the meantime.

As relief by sea has been hindered by rough weather, it is feared the raile will further delay help for the refugees in the villages along the coast, which suffered most in the quake.

Latest figures compiled by the Home Office, which are not looked upon as final, give the number of deaths caused by the quake as 3,657, with 6,400 injured. The Home Office estimates 10,000 buildings were destroyed.

M. Vandervelde, the Belgian member and Socialist Foreign Minister, during the discussion of measures for the relief of the Bulgarian refugees, urged Bulgaria should grant amnesty to her political prisoners and thus wipe out the traces of the terrible events there.

"We are an international body and must respect sovereign rights," he said.
M. Vandervelde rejoined that he agreed with this and had merely expressed his personal opinion.

COMMENDATION OF GOVERNMENT'S AID TO RETURNED MEN

Sympathetic Attitude Towards Ex-Soldiers Wins Convention Approval

By Times Staff Representative
Vancouver, March 11.—Vigorous efforts by the Oliver Government to care for returned soldiers were given emphatic approval by the Provincial Liberal Party convention here yesterday.

Moved by Capt. Ian Mackenzie, M.P.P., and Capt. C. S. Leary, M.P.P., both returned men, the following resolution was carried unanimously:

"Resolved that this convention do record its approval of the sympathetic attitude of the Government of the Province during the last ten years towards the problems and difficulties of ex-service men:

"And be it further resolved that this convention do particularly commend—

"(a) The establishment of a Department of Industries and the loaning of money in industrial loans to aid in the re-establishment of returned men;

"(b) The establishment of the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission;

"(c) The Better Housing Act;

"(d) Rebates to soldier land settlers;

"(e) The exemption from certain forms of taxation of handicapped ex-service men;

"(f) Sweeping reductions in the assessments of soldier settlers at Meriville and Creston;

"(g) Other acts of legislation and administration designed for the relief of ex-service men and their re-establishment;

"And be it further resolved that this convention do approve of the continued efforts of the Federal and Provincial Governments for the further relief of ex-service men and more especially of those wholly or partially incapacitated through their service to their country."

Speaking to his resolution, Capt. Mackenzie paid a high tribute to the Government's work on behalf of returned men. While the Government had recently made sweeping reductions in charges against soldier settlers, the Opposition, he declared, had met this reform by a bitter attack on the administration of the Meriville Settlement scheme—an attack which had proved utterly without foundation.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT
Premier Oliver joined in the discussion to recall the Government's effort to face the problem of re-establishing returned men on their arrival home. Realizing that the Federal Government could not handle the problem, the provincial authorities had gone far beyond their constitutional duty to aid the former soldiers, he said.

"All we did was all too little to pay the debt of gratitude we owed to the men who fought overseas," the Premier declared. "I am glad to have representatives of these men come here and express appreciation of what has been done."

TORY ATTACKS
The Premier referred to the Conservative opposition's attack on the business affairs of the Province, and also secured the full rights of every section of our industrial community will place our industries upon a firm foundation and assure the future prosperity of the Province.

"We sometimes hear that the Government does not treat industry favorably," said W. F. Hanbury of Vancouver, who moved the resolution. "I am interested in lumbering, our greatest industry, and I have nothing but praise for the Government's treatment."

He added in regard to the minimum wage law that no lumber company with modern equipment needed to object to the wages fixed under this statute.

"Nowhere in the Empire, or in the world, I believe, can you find a parallel to the increase in industry in British Columbia in recent times," said Mr. Mansson.

"Our payroll has jumped no less than $100,000,000 in ten years. This is a record that stands by itself."

"The policy of the Government is to establish relations between capital and labor, which will result in the greatest possible development. The Government rather than the fact that labor and social legislation in British Columbia is in advance of any in effect in any part of Canada. At the same time we want to hold the balance fairly between both sides. We don't want to make the burden on industry such that capital will not come to British Columbia. The astounding increase in our payroll shows that capital has no feeling of this sort."

"In a word, we want labor happy but capital unafraid!"

SOMETHING NEW IN THE WORLD

LABOR HAPPY AND CAPITAL UNAFRAID LIBERALS' POLICY

Convention Gives Unanimous Approval to Stand on Industrial Matters

B.C. Payroll Has Jumped From $78,000,000 to $175,800,000 in Ten Years

By Times Staff Representative
Vancouver, March 11.—"The policy of the Oliver Government is to keep labor happy and capital unafraid," declared Hon. A. M. Mansson, Minister of Labor, at the Provincial Liberal Party convention here yesterday when industrial problems were under discussion.

Mr. Mansson's explanation of Government policy followed the unanimous passage of the following resolution endorsing the work of the administration in labor questions:

"Whereas the Oliver Government took over the responsibilities of office has been one of marked progress in the industrial affairs of the Province, in proof of which the following facts may be cited:

"1. That the payroll of the industries of the Province has increased from $78,000,000 in 1917 to $175,800,000 in 1926, an increase in ten years of 124 per cent. In its ratio of industrial expansion during this period, British Columbia stands first, not only among the provinces of Canada, but also among all the countries of the world;

"2. That, owing largely to the action of Liberal Governments of the Dominion and the Province, burdens of taxation upon the shoulders of industry have been greatly lightened and sympathetic attention given to the claims of labor, thereby promoting harmonious relations between employers and workmen; and

"3. That conditions which have been fostered by the Government have conduced to the record production last year in agriculture, lumbering, mining and fishing, the birth of a new and important industry carried on in fish reduction plants, the building up of a great pulp and paper industry, the rapid development of overseas commerce from our seaports, and the almost phenomenal extension of building in Vancouver and other districts;

"This convention, therefore, expresses the utmost confidence that our Dominion and Provincial Governments, by continuing the policy which makes for stability in the business affairs of the Province, and also secures the full rights of every section of our industrial community will place our industries upon a firm foundation and assure the future prosperity of the Province."

"We sometimes hear that the Government does not treat industry favorably," said W. F. Hanbury of Vancouver, who moved the resolution. "I am interested in lumbering, our greatest industry, and I have nothing but praise for the Government's treatment."

He added in regard to the minimum wage law that no lumber company with modern equipment needed to object to the wages fixed under this statute.

"Nowhere in the Empire, or in the world, I believe, can you find a parallel to the increase in industry in British Columbia in recent times," said Mr. Mansson.

"Our payroll has jumped no less than $100,000,000 in ten years. This is a record that stands by itself."

COUZENS SMILES AS TAX SUIT MAY COST $10,000,000

Washington, March 11.—Ten million dollars—pooh, pooh! There are men who could say that, but there is probably only one would say it and mean it.

The exception is the Hon. James Couzens, Senator from Michigan, former Canadian, and he said it in the face of a government tax suit which is actually likely to take more than $10,000,000 away from him.

When the government's $40,000,000 suit against former minority Ford stockholders began in Detroit, the defendant Couzens was conspicuously absent. Each day he was to be seen on the floor of the Senate and his genial grin was as frequent as ever.

"That's what I hire lawyers for," he replied when someone asked him why he didn't go out to his home town and take more interest in the attempt to take this big slice out of his fortune.

After weary weeks in Detroit, the trial before the tax board of appeals came here. Surely, his colleagues thought, the senator would spend some time now that the proceedings were brought to his very feet.

They didn't know Couzens. He stopped in twice on his way to the Senate, but only to greet friends of the old days when the Ford Motor Company, of which he was then manager, was just an industrial infant. He never bothered once to sit in on the testimony or to hear his lawyers do their stuff in behalf of those ten millions—plus heavy interest.

WORTH $100,000,000
The Couzens wealth is estimated all the way from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000.

When the huge tax suit was brought against him and his co-defendants—not on the grounds that they had cheated the government but on the allegation that the government had bungled its valuations—he said the amount of money didn't interest him at all. He had undertaken to expose crookedness in the Internal Revenue Bureau, however, and he did admit considerable interest in the principle of the thing.

He allowed his friends to make the charge that this was Secretary Mellon's way of hitting back at him. But he himself has refused to comment for purposes of publication. His attitude is that the government has grabbed a wild bear by the tail and—

BEAT STREET RAILWAY
He was a hard-boiled executive as Detroit's millionaire police commissioner. The heaviest of his position has been that, with all his money, he has never had to truckle to anybody. He made numerous enemies in Detroit when he insisted on enforcing the law regardless of whom it hit.

Couzens achieved national prominence as mayor of Detroit when he bought the street railway there for the city. The interest cars had always been an issue and when Couzens ran for the mayoralty he promised to clean up the situation. The traction owners offered to sell at a stiff price and Couzens laughed at them. They laughed at him, too, but when their franchise was up, the city's workers began at midnight to tear up the tracks preparatory to laying down tracks for the city.

The owners, bluff called, hastened to Couzens and fixed on what Couzens regarded as a fair price. The street railway is now clearing up all its indebtedness and operating at a low fare. Its admitted success is largely due to the saving Couzens made for the city with his hard-boiled tactics.

Liquor Sales in Ontario in May

Toronto, March 11.—Premier Ferguson stated last night that it would be May 15 at latest before the new liquor control act would come into operation in Ontario.

One point in connection with the new legislation Premier Ferguson has said should be particularly emphasized is that the workman who "rescues a drink of beer" may buy it by the bottle so long as it is consumed in his private residence.

EXCISE ACT AMENDED
Ottawa, March 11.—Third reading was given in the House last night of a bill amending the Excise Act. One amendment raises the jurisdiction of county court judges and magistrates to hear cases of offences against the act where the goods involved are valued at $5,000. Under the law as it now reads, county court judges and magistrates have jurisdiction only where the value of the goods exceed $2,000. A number of uncertainties which have been experienced in the interpretations of various clauses of the act are removed by the bill.

Rejects University Board Appointees

Olympia, Wash., March 11.—The Senate of the Washington State Legislature last night rejected, for the second time, four appointees of Governor Roland H. Hartley to the University of Washington board of regents.

The Senate's action is an echo of the two-year controversy between Governor Hartley and a majority of the Legislature over the conduct of school affairs.

The controversy reached its height last October when the Hartley appointed regents dismissed Dr. Henry Suzzallo as president of the university. A movement to recall the Governor followed President Suzzallo's removal. It has failed.

The Senate, at the opening of the legislative session, two months ago, refused to confirm the appointment of the regents. The Governor's presentation of the same appointments last night was not generally expected.

BUY THE LOCAL PRODUCT

IT IS WORTH REPEATING THE PLAIN statement that if the people of British Columbia would buy more British Columbia products, they would be adding to their own and the Province's prosperity.

No argument against taxation, lack of employment, loss of population, export of raw materials, can be conscientiously presented by the individual who persistently ignores the local product. British Columbia's payrolls would soon double if the consumers of this Province would make a point of buying the commodities that are grown or manufactured here. We believe there is just as earnest a desire on the part of the citizens of Victoria to be loyal to this community in the economic sense as there is to be loyal to it in any other sense. All that is required is an appreciation of the importance of the individual part all may play in strengthening the commercial structure.

It is no use blaming the wholesaler or the retailer. They are in business to meet the requirements of their customers. If they are asked for an article made in Toronto, for instance, they have no alternative but to supply it. So it goes. It is a matter solely for the consumer to deal with. There is, of course, an obligation for the producer to discharge; his article must be able to compete successfully in quality and price with the imported product. If he does his share he is entitled to patronage, and the retailer will be glad to stock his goods, and the larger sales of local products would soon be reflected in lower taxes, more employment, and increased prosperity generally.

Any movement to popularize the local article, or the provincial article, should be warmly supported by all our citizens in their own interests.

IT COULDN'T BE A LOVE FEAST

IN ITS REPORT OF THE FIRST DAY'S proceedings of the Liberal Convention in Vancouver the morning paper takes note of the differing views on the subject of hydro-electric power and comes to the conclusion that the gathering is "far from a love feast."

A gathering of Liberals anywhere would be a tame affair, a comparative waste of time, unless plain speaking could be indulged in. It is characteristic of Liberalism that individual thought is given full rein whenever the occasion may demand. When this freedom of action ceases to be exercised, when active workers of the party permit themselves to be driven like a flock of sheep, it will be a poor look-out for their cause.

At least it can be said for the Liberals in convention that their first "wrangle" developed through the discussion of an industrial topic of great importance to the public of this Province. If they fall out among themselves, it can be said with certainty that there will be no such spectacle as that which delegates to the Conservative Convention at Kamloops witnessed some time ago. Something will be accomplished and any rift which may develop will be temporary only. That is the way of Liberalism.

All our Conservative friends have to show for their labors at Kamloops is a rather disunited party which is trying to make up its mind whether it shall bring back the "old chief" or put up with long-distance leadership until after the next general election.

OUR BOUNDARY DISPUTES

THE PRIVY COUNCIL'S DEFINITION OF "coast" as applied to the Canada-Newfoundland dispute prompts the hope that if ever this Dominion shall have another disagreement with any of its neighbors over territorial boundaries on the seaboard it will endeavor to keep clear of that august tribunal. This definition gouges out of Labrador, which is now a part of Quebec, an area larger than Newfoundland itself. On that interpretation, if baldly applied, at least half of British Columbia can be described as coast, since the western boundary of the Labrador territory which has been awarded to Newfoundland is several hundred miles from the Atlantic. Newfoundland actually gets an area within the geographical limits of Canada equal to about four times that of Vancouver Island.

Canada has been very unfortunate in her boundary disputes. In the Maine, Oregon and Alaska boundary settlements British diplomacy appears to have been more concerned with keeping on friendly terms with our neighbors than it was with the preservation of Canadian territory. In the present case, however, diplomacy was not involved, since it was a dispute in the first place between the Province of Quebec and the Crown Colony of Newfoundland on the question of what was meant by Newfoundland's claim to territory on the coast of Labrador.

We doubt very much if Newfoundland with its limited resources will be able to administer the large hinterland which has been awarded to it. Indeed, it is not unlikely that it hopes to make a substantial profit out of the sale of the territory to Canada. It was willing to sell its claim for thirty million dollars a short time ago, but the price was scouted as ridiculous by Canada. The prospects are that Newfoundland rather than burdening itself with a task beyond its resources eventually will be willing to negotiate on more favorable terms.

An easier solution would be the entrance of Newfoundland into the Dominion. Provision was made for this in the B.N.A. Act of 1867, but the neighboring Crown Colony preferred to retain its separate status.

A CHINESE PUZZLE

IT WILL BE OBSERVED THAT MILITARY observers are not committing themselves to wise speculations and definite predictions on the military situation in China as they have been wont to do on large war-like operations in other parts of the world. The reason is clear enough. They cannot be sure from week to week just who or what the contending forces are likely to be. They know that the Cantonese form one definite group with definite objectives, but the element of uncertainty arises when they try to define what forces are likely to oppose the southern army. For the moment the Shantung General Chang and his troops are being posted for the defence of Shanghai. The Manchurian general, Chang, is presumed to be moving southward against the Cantonese. Up to this point these two Changs are co-operating against the Cantonese Chang, but on the sidelines is General Wu, a former enemy as well as former ally of the Manchurian Chang, who now seems to be playing a lone hand. He is ready to take sides with the group which has the better prospects and which, of course, he will eventually betray. Away in the West is the so-called "Christian general" Feng, who is presumed to be sympathetic with the Cantonese. Feng has also changed his coat so many times that his future course always will be open to doubt. Then, again, we have to remember that Chinese armies do not fight with bullets until there has been much skirmishing with currency. It is not improbable that the Cantonese in these bloodless skirmishes will buy up so many of the officers of the Shantung Chang that there will be very few forces with which to defend Shanghai. The quandary of outside military observers, therefore, can be easily understood.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

"FARM RELIEF" THAT WILL FAIL
From The New York World

President Coolidge also vetoed the McNary-Haugen Farm Bill. The farmers are in need of relief, and they deserve more sympathetic treatment than they have received at the hands of the present Administration, but they will not get what they need and what they have a right to expect if this bill becomes a law.

In three respects the McNary-Haugen bill is fundamentally objectionable: (1) it vests a single economic class with government functions; (2) it is clearly unconstitutional in two important features; and (3) it will ultimately defeat its own purpose by restricting marketing without restricting production. The general administration of the McNary-Haugen plan is vested in a Federal Farm Board. Nominally, this board is appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate; but the President is limited in selecting its members to a list of nominees selected by farmers. Such a limitation of the President's appointive power is regarded by many as contrary to the Constitution. The Federal Farm Board is empowered to decide how much of certain agricultural products may be sold in the domestic market, and how much shall be withdrawn for export or storage. By thus restricting the domestic supply prices will be raised, but what the decision is made the general public will not be represented.

On the commodities stored or exported there will be certain costs or losses. These are to be made up by a special tax, or "equalization fee," levied on the products which have benefited from the price control. The amount of the tax and the mode of its collection are to be determined by the Farm Board. This delegation of taxing power is likewise believed to be unconstitutional.

In short the bill provides a new unit of government, a government of farmers, by farmers and for farmers. And if the scheme begins to work as its advocates predict, and agricultural prices are raised to a highly profitable level, every farmer will be under such a strong inducement to increase his yield that the plan must eventually defeat its own purpose. It is in no sense a measure of real relief.

Queer Quirks of Nature

By ARTHUR N. PACK

The Sweet Gum, also called Red Gum and Liquidambar, is one of the few trees marked by star-shaped leaves. These leaves are about 3 to 5 inches long, but broader than they are long; they do not adhere strictly to the star formation, having six points instead of the conventional five, but the general appearance is similar.

In the Autumn the leaves first turn to a pale orange, then gradually become a deep red; when crushed they exude a fragrant odor.

The Sweet Gum has many points to recommend it for street planting and is being adapted for ornamental purposes. Its narrow growth and graceful and star-shaped leaves give it an especial beauty during the season of green foliage. In Autumn the brilliantly colorful effect of the turning leaves lends splendor to a street and in Winter its dress of spiced balls prevents it from wearing the bare look of other trees. The soil for the Sweet Gum should be rich and moist, although it will adapt itself to less favorable conditions and can with care be successfully moved.

SWEET GUM

Do You Mean What You Say?

"WITH A GRAIN OF SALT"

"A SALT" is used sparingly, so is truth in remarks to which this expression is applied. "With a grain of salt" is with great reservations. There was a time when salt was much more valuable than it is today and dishes were less highly seasoned so that the phrase was even more meaningful than now.

PSYCHOLOGIST TO LECTURE IN CITY

Dr. W. G. Alexander Will Deliver Course of Lectures
Here Next Week

Dr. W. G. Alexander, psychologist and character-analyst, will deliver a course of lectures in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium next week.

His subjects will be character analysis and applied psychology. Dr. Alexander is at present at the Dominion Hotel here, but is scheduled to address Vancouver audiences to-morrow.

"It seems to me," said the doctor, "that psychology is to-day stressing overmuch the philosophical phases of psychology. Greater practical results would proceed from a more intimate knowledge of the intricate interaction of the mental and the purely physical organs. We know for example quite a lot about the effect the secretions from different glands have upon the body, but about the extent and the nature of the influence that the mind exerts over these same glands we know comparatively little."

Dr. Alexander stated that in his opinion the psycho-analysis of Freud and Jung, which set the scientific and lay world ago years ago, undoubtedly indicated the path to be followed in the treatment of disorders arising from repressed impulses resident in the sub-conscious mind.

The doctor considered the stories of O. Henry to reveal the greatest psychological insight of any modern author. His characters were the ordinary people of conventional life, acting in a natural, logical, and quite unimpressive way, until the climax is reached, whereupon in a few brief words, the doctor indicated the path to be followed in the treatment of disorders arising from repressed impulses resident in the sub-conscious mind.

Anthony's oration over the dead body of Julius Caesar was the greatest revelation of psychology in literature, according to Dr. Alexander.

Officers Elected
By Hustlers' Club

The Hustlers Club of the Victoria City Temple held its semi-annual business meeting last night at the home of the mentor, A. R. C. Hebdon, 2625 Mount Stephen Avenue.

Reports were given of the club's activities during the last six months, the tenor of each report indicating a very favorable condition of the club's affairs.

Many new members have been enrolled. The following were the newly elected officers for the ensuing six months:

President, Fred Hole; vice-president, Nelson McMillan; assembly executive representative, Ralph Snider; past president, Kenneth Bates; mentor, A. R. C. Hebdon; S. of R. education board representative, Gordon Dickson.

After much discussion it was decided to assist the church to raise funds by taking charge of a "Hot Dog Stall" at the coming City Temple bazaar in the Armories on March 31, and on April 1 and 2. Mr. Raymond Jones was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of this work.

Several invitations from outside points were considered for repeat performance of the club's 1927 play, "The New Boy." It was decided to go first to Colwood on March 25, and later to Keating, Duncan, Esquimalt and Salt Spring, B.C.

Bank was extended to R. E. Snider for his work in so successfully managing the business of the play.

Two members were welcomed at the meeting, George Ridgway and Lloyd B. Keith.

Refreshments were served after the business session.

CITY MAY REDUCE INDUSTRIAL RATES TO WATER USERS

Domestic Water Bills Are Also to Come Down, States Alderman E. S. Woodward

A reduction in water rates for industrial purposes, to benefit existing enterprises using water in large quantities as well as new industries that may be induced to locate here was indicated by Alderman E. S. Woodward in a ten-minute talk over radio CFCT last night.

The speaker pointed to plans now maturing to increase pressure all over the city's system, by a means of regulation from the flowline which would to a large extent obviate assistance from Smith's Hill reservoir.

That conservation of water and added revenue to the city have come from the amalgamation of the Sooke and Esquimalt watershed systems was another point made by the speaker, who told of favorable agreements made with the H.C.E.R. as to the supply of water for power purposes. This water was turned back into the system again; and used for the second time, he added, bringing a revenue of $2,000 last year in increased quantities used.

Despite three years of exceedingly light rainfall the Goldstream Lakes were nearly full, continued the speaker, and within one month's time all three would be overflowing their spillways. From the Goldstream system the city controlled a greater volume of water than had been expected, and the amalgamation of the two systems had led to a real conservation in the supply.

Victoria has water assets available for a city many times its size to-day, and this was a factor that would be found of great use in the industrial development aimed at in the city's 1927 plans, he continued. For industrial users of large quantities of water the city would be prepared to consider lessened rates, and an industrial scale was now under consideration by the Water Commissioner.

Turning to domestic supply Alderman Woodward contended the effect of the Oak Bay-Victoria water finding had been to throw an unfair burden of expense on Victoria. Esquimalt and Saanich users to the benefit of Oak Bay. The city's only aim in the control of the supply was to assure pure water in unlimited quantities for all public needs. At present the water debt had to be met from water revenue, and not until the capital sum had been paid off would any great reduction be possible.

City consumers, he continued, might look forward to a cut in domestic water bills in the near future and in this cut would be included the elimination of the 17 cent penalty for overdue accounts. The new rates were now under consideration by the city's water committee and early action might be expected, Alderman Woodward stated.

Equal treatment for all water consumers was the aim behind the city's administration, concluded the speaker, and though differences of opinion sometimes occurred in the particular issue, the policy remained the same. That policy, he added, was to insure the greatest good to the greatest numbers.

URGES NEW BASIS FOR DOMESTIC USE OF CITY WATER

Reduction of Rates to Smaller Type Homes Urged by Alderman E. S. Woodward

Advocating that a revision of domestic water rates would serve to decrease water bills of those living in six-room and smaller houses, without adding to the accounts of larger properties, as increased consumption could offset the rebate, Alderman E. S. Woodward gave figures to-day for the average monthly consumption now recorded in the city.

The figures, he stated, show 104 two-room dwellings using an average of 262 cubic feet of water per month; 363 three-room dwellings at 306 cubic feet; 983 four-room dwellings at 431 cubic feet; 2,192 five-room dwellings at 481 cubic feet; 167 six-room dwellings at 644 cubic feet; 1,152 seven-room dwellings at 561 cubic feet; 690 eight-room dwellings at 744 cubic feet; 345 nine-room dwellings at 922 cubic feet, and 322 ten-room dwellings at 181 cubic feet.

Occupants of six-room dwellings or smaller would derive a direct benefit from a reduction in domestic water rates by the adoption of a new basis, stated Alderman Woodward. The position of those occupying the larger homes would be unchanged, as they would be any shrinkage in receipts would be offset by increased consumption, he said. The report of the water committee on the subject is not yet ready for submission to the City Council.

SAYS FAMILY IS SURETY AND ASKS FOR HIS FREEDOM

Alleged Forger in City Court Pleads for Leniency; is Remanded

Asking that he be released from custody on his own recognizance, S. M. Woodhill, charged in the City Police Court to-day with securing money under false pretences, told Magistrate Jay that he has a wife and five children in this city and that this should be sufficient surety that he would not leave town. His honor set bail at $500 of two sureties, however, under the circumstances, such a request as the accused made could not be countenanced, said Magistrate Jay.

Woodhill is charged with cashing a worthless cheque at the Hudson's Bay Company Store here. The amount he received for the cheque was $7. He has been remanded until to-morrow.

Detectives Rogers and Caldwell arrested Woodhill.

The case continues to-morrow morning.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR PRODUCTS FAIR

New Features Will Add to Attractiveness, Herbert Pendray Reports

Provincial and Federal Governments Will Have Displays

New features which will be introduced in the Home Products Fair April 25 to April 30 at the Armories, Bay Street, will make it outstanding and more attractive than any fair held in Victoria, Herbert Pendray reported to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon.

Both the Federal and Provincial Governments will have displays, the entrance of Federal Government exhibits being an innovation. Horticulture will be featured by the Provincial Government with an attractive display. The egg industry will also form the subject of an exhibit.

A variety of entertainment has been arranged and the prospects of a successful fair were very encouraging.

POWER PROJECT NOT THREATENING PARK

Banff Scenery Not Endangered, Says Calgary Trade Board

Everyone who has studied the question admits that neither the scenery nor the surroundings would be in any way damaged by creating the proposed reservoir at the Spray Lakes in the Banff National Park, the Victoria Chamber of Commerce was advised to-day in a letter from the Calgary Board of Trade, read at the directors' meeting.

The letter was received in reply to one sent by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce after the Canadian National Parks Association had written protesting that the creation of the reservoir would destroy the beauty of the park.

The chamber was asked to join in protest on the ground that a national resort was in danger of commercial sacrifice.

The board decided to take no action in the matter.

LIGHT FINES FOR LOCAL FISHERMEN

Men Who Tied Their Lines in Their Boats Pay $1 Penalty

Fishermen, who break the law in waters adjacent to Victoria are liable to punishment. Nine amateur anglers charged with fastening a trolling line to a boat while fishing were fined $1 each in police court to-day.

S. S. Plaster, John Young, William Poppe, Cecil Frampton, Stanley Bruce, William Wintell, John Gill, William Rowe and Robert Inkham were the nine defendants.

E. L. Tait pleaded guilty for all accused this morning. Inspector E. G. Taylor prosecuted.

John Nicholson, fishery guardian, on patrol boat, had been informed on February 27, warned fishermen that they would be arraigned before a magistrate for infraction of fishing laws. The news brought forth a storm of protest and letters have been written to Ottawa pointing to the so-called absurdity of such charges. Fishermen, it appears, are expected to row their boats and hold their trolling lines at the same time. Reforms in the fishing regulations are pending.

FEDERALSHIP CALLED "WHITE ELEPHANT"

Coastguards and Customs Disagree Over Disposition of Liquor

San Francisco, March 11—The suspected rum steamer Federalship, taken on the high seas by force by two coast guard patrol boats recently, is becoming somewhat of a floating "white elephant."

The crew taken off recently and lodged in the county jail, have so overcrowded that structure that extra cots had to be brought in to accommodate them.

The coast guard desires that the liquor be taken off the boat and stored so that the guard patrol boats can be released. The customs people seem to think that the ship is the safest storing place for its liquid cargo.

There is also the question of keeping the ship afloat, as she developed a suspicious leak while being towed in. A crew, supplied by the Government, must be kept at this work constantly.

WEST INDIES SHIP SERVICE DISCUSSED BY OTTAWA M.P.'S

C.N.R. BRANCH LINE BILLS ARE DEBATED

Ottawa, March 11—Canadian National Railway branch line construction resolutions were discussed in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. The resolutions form the basis for fifteen bills which provide for construction of approximately 470 miles of road at an estimated cost of slightly over $20,000,000. This constitutes the three-year construction problem of the system, although Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Railways, informed the House it might be necessary to construct a few other extensions during the three-year period.

Dr. O. B. Egan, Conservative, Westmoreland, N.B., said provision was being made for large expenditures on the prairies, but almost nothing was provided for in the East.

Mr. Dunning replied that the programme before the House, had been recommended as being in the best interests of the whole system.

Robert Gardiner, U.P.A., Acadia, Alberta, approved the programme, but suggested one or two additions. The resolutions covering the fifteen lines were approved and the bills passed on them given first and second Fairbanks, Alaska, March 11—Jurors in the trial of Mrs. Nellie Bates on a charge of mail robbery were "mushing" back to their homes to-day after they had been discharged when they reported after forty-nine hours' deliberation that they hopelessly disagreed.

Mrs. Bates, known in the North as "The Black Bear of the Iditarod," went on trial twenty-three days ago, charged with robbing a mail dogged of $53,000. The trial followed the confession of William Schermeyer, aged roadhouse keeper, implicating the "Black Bear."

YOUNG MAN DIED AFTER FOUR DAYS OF ARTIFICIAL BREATHING

Chicago, March 11—Albert Frick, the twenty-two-year-old youth who had lived for four and one-half days although powerless to breathe, lost his battle for life last night.

The young man, who had been kept alive through the efforts of three score fellow employees who breathed for him with their hands through artificial respiration, died last night in the Evanston Hospital, 108 hours after artificial respiration had been started when creeping paralysis affected his diaphragm.

RESOLUTIONS COVERING WIDE RANGE BEFORE CONVENTION

Aid for Dry Belt Farmers, Teachers' Allowances and Bonuses, Reforestation, Range Control, Working Hours and University Lands Dealt With

By Times Staff Representative

Vancouver, March 11.—Need of forest fire protection, aid for dry belt farmers, retiring allowances for aged teachers, and special bonuses for rural teachers, is stressed in a series of resolutions passed by the Provincial Liberal Party convention here yesterday. The resolution on forest protection follows:

"Whereas it is vital to the welfare of this Province that the timber industry shall continue to be one of the main industries of the Province in perpetuity.

"Therefore be it resolved that this convention approves of the most careful study of the problems of reforestation; and as fire prevention is a first prerequisite of reforestation policy, this convention recommends continuation of educational propaganda and of investigation to devise improved methods both of fire prevention and fire fighting."

On interior farming problems the following was passed:
"Resolved that this convention approves of the policy of assistance to farming in the dry belt through irrigation, and recommends generous treatment for the amelioration of the difficult conditions facing the fruit industry."

Dealing with range control, the convention endorsed this resolution: "Resolved that this convention approves of the policy of range control, so that the greatest possible use may be made of range land in the Province, to the upbuilding of the livestock industry; and to this end this convention recommends that those engaged in the industry should be encouraged to co-operate to the fullest possible extent."

The problem of aged teachers was dealt with in the following resolution:
"Whereas a number of the public school teachers of the Province have spent a lifetime in the work of teaching in British Columbia.

"Whereas in a majority of the provinces of Canada and in other British Dominions there is a pension scheme in effect.

"Whereas the Legislature at its recent session made provision for the care of a small number of aged and infirm teachers.

"And whereas the provision so made is commendable but is not based on a scientific contributory basis.

"Therefore be it resolved that in the opinion of this convention any pension scheme for teachers should be on a contributory basis."

Another resolution declared:
"The convention is of the opinion that the Oliver Government has very properly enacted legislation designed to limit the hours of labor of industrialists, first, in the underground mining and in the smelting industries and, subsequently, in industry generally, in line with the expressed attitude of the International Labor Council of the League of Nations at its Washington conference.

"And be it further resolved that this convention approves the care selection of the personnel of the board of adjustment set up under the Hours of Work Act."

Mrs. Stanley Brown of Vancouver secured passage of a resolution favoring greater representation by women on "all conferences, conventions, boards and commissions, whether administrative or investigative."

The important resolution on rural teachers follows:

"Resolved that this convention expresses its appreciation of the splendid work performed by the teaching staffs of our educational institutions in British Columbia and strongly disapproves the unfair and unwarranted criticisms directed against them by the Conservative members of the B.C. Legislature.

"Whereas at the present time teachers in the Province are attracted to the schools in the larger cities which can afford to pay higher salaries and where living conditions are more attractive.

"And whereas it is recognized that the work of teaching in the rural schools is very onerous owing to the large number of grades.

"And whereas it requires teachers of capacity and special training in rural problems to give satisfactory service in rural schools.

"And whereas the Government gives larger grants to teachers in rural schools than to those in the cities, but does not at the present time provide a bonus for continued service in the same school.

"And whereas frequent change of good teachers is detrimental to the interests of the rural children.

"Therefore be it resolved that this convention is in favor of the enactment of legislation by the Government of special grants to encourage competent and experienced teachers to remain for a longer period in their schools in the rural parts of the Province."

Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, expressed keen sympathy with the principle of the resolution.

Another resolution endorsed the action of the Government in continuing surveys of the Province's natural resources.

In regard to the B.C. University the convention passed this resolution:

"That this convention approves of the policy of development of the University endowment funds, and expresses confidence that in the not distant future these funds will begin to bear a share of the cost of the University buildings and maintenance thereof."

Minimum wage problems were dealt with as follows:

"Resolved that this convention while of the opinion that the fixing of wage scales is primarily a matter for negotiation between employers and their employees, believes that the conditions under which some of our principal industries in this Province are carried on do not permit of effective bargaining on the part of the lower paid and unskilled workers.

"And be it further resolved that this convention records its approval of the legislation establishing the principle of a minimum wage for both male and female workers.

"Be it further resolved that this convention is of the opinion that the principle of the minimum wage should be equitably established throughout any branches of industry where the lack of organization among any portion of the workers has heretofore resulted in the failure of this employer to pay a reasonable living wage.

"And be it further resolved that in the matter of unorganized employees, particularly clerks in retail stores, a definite length of apprenticeship be specified by the minimum wage board.

"And be it further resolved that increased precautions be exercised in the matter of inspection to prevent evasion of the act."

Activities of the Men's Canadian Club for the year were outlined at the first meeting of the newly-elected executive in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. Kenneth Ferguson, the new president, presided.

Appointment of committees resulted as follows:

Speakers, John Cochrane; membership, C. W. Pangman and H. J. Pender; essays and history prizes, Fred M. McGregor; transportation, Carl S. Gonnason; addresses by members to schools, William T. Straith; out-of-town meetings, Col. W. R. Wilby and J. R. Bunn; reception and guest table, E. M. McGregor, C. W. Pangman and C. S. Gonnason; Confederation Jubilee, F. B. Pemberton and Frank J. Sehl; finance, P. B. Fowler; evening meetings for members and families, F. J. Sehl.

The visit of Lord Willingdon, the Governor-General of Canada, was the subject of discussion and plans for an address to the club by him were completed. Lord Willingdon will be in the city on March 28 and the luncheon at which he will speak is to be held at 12.15 p.m.

Arrangements for evening meetings to be held from time to time by the club were made and it was decided to divide these into two classes. Supper gatherings will be held for those unable to attend the noon meetings and night meetings at 8 o'clock in a public auditorium will be called for the members, their families and friends.

New members of the club elected last night were: A. F. Stevens, J. D. Clark, Dr. J. A. Stewart, Angus Watson, A. E. Shanks, A. Victor King, F. M. Sterry and W. H. A. Long, who was formerly a member of the Canadian Club of Winnipeg.

WOMEN'S PLACE IN CHURCH LIFE ISSUE

Warm Controversy at Baptist Gathering in New York

New York, March 11.—The old question of women's right to participate in the discussions of the Baptist Church caused a ripple of excitement at the conference of the Baptist Bible Union yesterday when it involved Dr. J. W. Gilson of Winchester, Ky., and Dr. John Roach Straton, New York, in a lively controversy.

Dr. Straton came to the defence of women preachers, stating: "We haven't yet opened our eyes to the writings of the New Testament in regard to women preaching. In this respect we are still stone blind."

The argument started when a woman asked Dr. Gilson, who was assailing "the paganism of modern educational institutions," permission to ask a question. The speaker granted the request, although such a procedure, he stated, was contrary to the principles of the Southern Baptist Church and he wouldn't promise to answer.

Dr. Straton came to the defence of women preachers, stating: "We haven't yet opened our eyes to the writings of the New Testament in regard to women preaching. In this respect we are still stone blind."

"I think you have a great deal to learn," he said. "One of the greatest preachers I ever heard is a fourteen-year-old girl."

He was referring to Uldine Utley, who preached recently at his church, the Calvary Baptist Church, where to-day's meeting was held.

At this juncture several women tried to obtain the floor, one of them saying:

"What would the board of foreign missions be without women?"

Dr. Gilson explained that he merely was defining the attitude of the Southern Baptist Church in regard to women being allowed to preach and the matter was dropped. A woman's question remained unanswered.

The speaker blamed the influence of educational institutions for "the lack of initiative among the clergy." They cannot stand the constant hammering against the Bible which they are subjected to in the universities," he said.

He assailed schools and colleges for conforming to certain standards in order to get funds from the Rockefeller Foundation.

U.S. WOMEN OUT TO RAISE MARRIAGE AGE

Report Shows 345,000 Wives and Mothers Under Age of Fifteen Years

New York, March 11.—There are 345,000 girls in the United States, who with the consent of their parents, have become brides and mothers at the age of fifteen years or under, says a report made public by the New York League of Women Voters.

These girls have become the wives of men ranging in age from sixteen to fifty-two years, the report says. It is charged that in a great many instances parents consent to the marriage of their daughters at tender ages to evade educational laws, and thus to permit their daughters to go to work.

The League of Women Voters is seeking enactment of a law to raise the marriage age of girls in New York from fourteen to sixteen years.

The monthly meeting of Royal Oak Women's Institute was held on Wednesday afternoon, at Mrs. J. G. Nicholson's, the president, Mrs. H. Plinford, in the chair. The meeting was well attended and three new members enrolled.

The institute is arranging for another bazaar and Spring flower show at the Royal Oak Hall in April, at date to be fixed later.

A series of multiplication teas are to be started this week, the object of the proceeds to aid the Solarium fund.

A resolution was read and endorsed that the Government be asked for a grant of $50 to parents, where necessary to help defray maternity expenses, and by doing hope to increase the birth rate.

At the conclusion of the business session Miss Oldfield, convenor on child welfare, introduced Capt. St. Clair, who gave a splendid address on discipline and hygiene.

Miss Sherwood gave an interesting report of the two years' work of the Wolf Clubs, showing good work by the clubs. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the speakers. Tea was then served by the hostesses for the day, Mrs. H. H. Reid and Mrs. H. D. Gaton.

The fortnightly card party will be held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. G. Nicholson, East Saanich Road.

The new chiffon dresses are exquisitely tailored, with the little touches that used to belong to heavy materials.

LADY BYNG TELLS OF WOMEN OF CANADA

Tells Londoners Dominion Land of Opportunity For Women

London, March 11 (Canadian Press Cable).—"We are realizing that men are the most helpless creatures in the world," said Lady Byng, until recently mistress of Rideau Hall, Ottawa, in an address to a local club to-day on the women's side of a settler's life in Canada.

"They are never old enough to take care of themselves," she said, "and if they are like this in England, they are worse in Canada. Therefore if a man goes to settle there, he is not going to pull with him, he will fail."

"Canada is the land of opportunity for women as much as for men. It is the woman who is prepared to put her back into it and not care one bit what she does who will make good and become a successful and prosperous settler."

She dwelt upon the hospitality of Canadians to people from the old country and told the story of "a typical little cockney," the wife of a settler, whom she visited and who, when Lady Byng was leaving her, said: "Say, I mean to be the million-dollar kid."

The Misses Gertrude Gosse and Birnie Cummins were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower last evening given at the home of the former in honor of Miss Dorothy Pendray, whose wedding will take place the end of this month. The pretty gifts, concealed in a prettily-decorated box, were presented to the guest of honor by little Miss Barbara Curtin. The other guests present included Mrs. Carl Pendray, Mrs. J. Gosse, Mrs. A. Genn, Mrs. L. Corke, Mrs. R. L. Shaw and the Misses Alexandra Martin, Dorothy Genn, Betty Savannah, Nancy Reid, Dorothy Hicks, Ethel Bale, Helen Starr, Sadie Craig, Helen Strath, Claudia Padley, Norma Hendray and Phyllis Sandray.

PROVINCE SHOWING DOMINION WAY TO OLD AGE PENSIONS

All Canada Will Follow B.C.'s Lead, Says Oliver

By Times Staff Representative
Vancouver, March 11—All Canada will follow the example of British Columbia in adopting an old-age pension law, Premier Oliver predicted at the Provincial Liberal Party convention here yesterday when delegates unanimously endorsed the action of both Federal and Provincial Governments on old age pensions.

The resolution on the subject carried enthusiastically, ran as follows: "Resolved that this convention do heartily approve of the efforts of the Government of the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King to place upon the statute books of Canada legislation to provide pensions for the needy and deserving-aged of our country."

"And be it further resolved that this convention regrets the actions of the Senate of Canada in its Session of 1925-26 in failing to pass the Old Age Pension Bill and urges upon it to give its assent to the bill at this session."

"And be it further resolved that this convention heartily commends the Government of the Hon. John Oliver in passing an Old Age Pensions Bill for the purpose of bringing into effect Old Age Pensions Federal Legislation immediately the same is passed by the Federal Parliament."

"It is true the present federal pension bill is open to serious criticism but the main object of the promoters of the bill will be accomplished when Parliament accepts the principle of providing pensions for the aged."

IF SENATE IS WISE

"If the Senate is as wise as its years entitle it to be," he added, "it will realize the temper of the people as expressed at the last federal election and it will act, accordingly, endorsing the pension bill which it formerly rejected."

The Premier explained that the federal pension bill had been reintroduced in its old form so that the Senate would have no excuse for rejecting it a second time on the ground that it was a new scheme. The bill the Premier said, was workable in its present form and doubtless would be amended from time to time. The scheme, he believed, would not raise taxes here appreciably.

"I'll guarantee," the Premier concluded, "that inside the next year every citizen in Canada will have an old age pension law."

EQUITY FOR ALL PROVINCES SOUGHT BY OLIVER MOTION

Complete Review of Relationships Between Federal Government Desired

British Columbia Has Claim For Extra Allowance, Says Premier

By Times Staff Representative
Vancouver, March 11—Demand for a complete review of the relationships existing between the Federal Government and all the provinces of Canada is voiced in a resolution proposed by Premier Oliver and passed unanimously by the Provincial Liberal Party convention here yesterday.

BETTER TERMS
After listening to the Premier's explanation of his stand on the revival of the Better Terms issue, the convention adopted Mr. Oliver's resolution as follows:

"Whereas since the formation of the Dominion of Canada in 1867, and since the admission of British Columbia into the Dominion in 1871, and at various times since then, there have been adjustments of the relationship existing between the Government of the Dominion and the Governments of some of the Provinces of Canada;

"And whereas the Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island have applied for more favorable consideration from the Dominion Government;

"And whereas a royal commission has reported favorably upon the claims of the Maritime Provinces; and whereas large portions of the public lands of the Dominion of Canada have been ceded to the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec;

"And whereas the cession of other public lands of the Dominion to the Province of Alberta is in the process of negotiation;

"And whereas the public lands of the Dominion have been acquired and improved at the cost of the whole of the people of Canada, including the people of British Columbia;

"Therefore be it resolved that in the opinion of this convention there should be a most thorough examination and reviewing of the relationship between the Government of the Dominion and the Government of the Provinces of Canada, as such relationship has existed from time to time, and at its existing time of the completion of examination, and review herein mentioned; the purpose and intent of such examination and review, being the formation of a broad national basis upon which to erect a structure of just and equitable treatment of all the Provinces of Canada in their relationship with

has always been foremost in protecting and serving the interests of the tea-drinking public.

What "SALADA" does is, therefore, frequently imitated. Since 1892 every pound of "SALADA" has been sold in metal foil containers—the most effective known way to preserve the full flavour of tea.

This is one reason why more "SALADA" is used today than any other tea sold on this continent.

It never varies—always delicious!

the Government of Canada, and in their relationship to each other."

INVADING PROVINCIAL FIELD

The Premier reviewed at length the history of Confederation and the changes introduced into the relationships between the various provinces since the Confederation pact was signed. One of the chief changes, he said, was the action of the Federal Government in invading the provincial field to collect a direct tax, the income tax.

"I say if we have no claim for an extra allowance from the Federal Government because of the mountainous character of our Province, then the Federal Government has no right to come in and appropriate for national purposes the wealth of our mountains which they refuse to assist us in opening up," the Premier declared.

"In 1925 British Columbia gave the Federal Government over $3,000,000 in income tax, and of that over $2,000,000 came from corporations, the bulk from three or four mines."

The Premier quoted figures to show that British Columbia contributes more per capita to the Federal Government in income tax than other provinces.

"In 1925," he said, "we paid from the wealth of our mountains as much as four of the other provinces, together."

SINCE CONFEDERATION

"I take the stand that British Columbia has no right to ask favors from the Federal Government. But I do say that British Columbia is entitled to equity and justice from the Dominion. That is all we are asking, and for the purpose of setting down to bed rock I am suggesting by this resolution that we should ask the Federal Government to review everything that has taken place since Confederation between the Dominion and the provinces. Let us find out where we are at, and on a bed rock of fact we can raise a structure of equity and justice among all the provinces."

The Premier declared that if the Federal Government accepted and implemented the maritime commission's report this would cause a demand for fair treatment from every other province.

Pointing out that the relations between the Dominion and the provinces were under debate in Parliament now, Mr. Oliver concluded:

"The time is opportune for British Columbia Liberals to accept the principle and insist on a policy of complete equity—as applied to all provinces."

"From the Atlantic to the Pacific there is a species of discontent among the provinces. It is a matter of the national life of Canada that we shall get down to a basis of equity and justice."

Langford, March 11—Allen Baskerville of Sooke, visited Langford

yesterday on a business trip.

A meeting was held Wednesday night in the Women's Institute Hall of the local Liberal Association, composed of members from Happy Valley, Luxton, Colwood and Langford.

A. E. Wale, president, presided at the meeting, and much business was transacted. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies present.

Mr. Longmire of Solway House,

Goldstream Road, near Langford Lake, while attending to his chickens on Tuesday afternoon, saw a nearly full-grown cougar pass through his property, crossing the main road to some property opposite, which is unoccupied at present, the former owner only having moved to Victoria last week.

A meeting of the St. Matthew's Ladies' Guild was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Geoffrey Heal. The president, Mrs. E. Goucher, presided. The treasurer reported the satisfactory financial result of the recent silver tea held by the kindness of Mrs. George Cooney on March 1, by which the premium for three years fire insurance on St. Matthew's Church was paid. Several important discussions were entered into by the members. The next guild meeting will be held on Monday, March 21, by the kindness of Mrs. J. Stuart Yates at her home on the Millstream Road.

On Sunday next the Rev. Canon H. W. G. Stocken, vicar of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, will officiate and preach at St. Matthew's Church, Goldstream Road, at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Herbert Pearson, vicar, will take the morning service at St. Martin-in-the-Fields.

There was a good attendance at the lantern lecture by the Rev. H. Pearson on "Life and Scenes Among the Kwagwuth People," under the auspices of the Young People's Lodge-Star Club. On the conclusion of the lecture a silver collection was taken in aid of the funds of St. Matthew's Church. A short meeting of the Lodge-Star Club was held following the lantern lecture. Miss Nellie Wilson, the president, presiding. An invitation to a social evening on March 19 by the Colwood Optimists was gladly accepted by all the members present. The Lodge-Star Club committee have decided to hold fortnightly meetings instead of weekly for the rest of the season. The next meeting therefore will be held on Tuesday, March 22, when a bachelors' night will be held.

Colwood

Colwood, March 11—Executive members of the Colwood Optimists' Club met on Wednesday evening at the home of the honorary president, Miss Marion Kelly, when arrangements were made to hold a social evening in the Colwood Hall on Saturday, March 19, at which the Langford Lodge-Stars will be the guests of the Optimists. Each member of the club will be expected to bring a special guest and a very enjoyable evening is planned.

The governor of Trebizond, in Asiatic Turkey, has issued an order forbidding women to wear the veil publicly because it interferes with their right to earn their own living by working, is unhealthy, and furnishes an easy disguise against the police.

"Laila" By JOHN NEWPORT

A POWERFUL novel of human kind, absolutely unique amongst newspaper serials. Its scene is that into which Jesus came nearly 2,000 years ago.

LITERATURE contains no more brilliant narrative; no characters ever portrayed stand forth in more vivid relief than Laila, the Arabian woman, outcast and despised in a strange land; Omar, the glittering stranger, who scattered gold, and jewels, and lies; Antonius, the bluff Roman soldier, who offered his life to aid the villagers of Jezreel; Aaron, the brave old Jew; Maryam, the lovely, gentle, shrinking daughter of the village.

AND, in the background, shines the Light that was kindled in a manger of Bethlehem, three-score years before.

FOLLOW the story, from the moment of its opening in Laila's humble home, to the tremendous climax in the mountains of Gilboa.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, March 11.—(By R. P. Clark and Company).—Mixed movements were featured in the market to-day. Early firmness attracted week-end selling, and following this rumors of price-cutting by the Ford Motor Company encouraged further selling of the automotive shares, which soon spread throughout the general stock list, though there were strong spots in the list, such as Atchafalaya, which sold at a new high, accompanied by talk of a split-up of the shares in the near future.

Tire and rubber shares also were in active demand in the early afternoon, accompanied by talk of a pending advance in tires, and on the whole the market met with good supporting orders during the declining tendency.

Numerous earnings statements were out, and many of these were rather favorable, though the overnight news was featured by the placing of Mid-Continent Petroleum at a 33 dividend basis and Barnard & A. B. on a $2.50 yearly basis. Also the press reports on Seminole Field production showed a lowering, and oil reports generally were conducive to increased optimism with respect to petroleum shares.

We anticipate higher levels in the course of the next week or so.

New York, March 11.—Whitney to-day says:

"I still see no sign of the fulfillment of the expectation of a general market reaction, but on the other hand evidence is continuing to multiply that, despite the fact that the market has been exceptionally good selling, pretty well throughout the list, the combination of a large outstanding short interest and a public appetite for stocks which is difficult to satisfy, make a combined demand for stocks on all dips which will nullify the good selling until something arrives to shake confidence."

"I am still firmly of the opinion that a general reaction is needed and will be seen, but I frankly confess that my timing of it has been more than bad with both in industrial and stock groups have been moved sharply the next development of the immediate future should be a large list of special moves."

"General Asphalt has accumulated another short interest which is going to be run in just as the former was. From this point on expect the market in this issue to develop similarly to the recent market in Hudson Motors."

New Discoveries Made on Vipond

Most recent developments on Vipond Consolidated Mines, according to official advice received by Pemberton & Son, have been definitely favorable to character.

In addition to the work in the southern part of the property, two new discoveries have been made by diamond drilling in the central part of the mine. One drill hole cut nine feet of excellent ore, consisting of quartz and mineralized schist, which contained visible gold and assayed, after excluding visible gold, about $9 a ton.

Officials of the company are pleased with the last mentioned development, as it is in new territory. Immediate steps will be taken to develop these new discoveries.

Bornite Strike Made On Richmond-Yukon

Yukon officials announced in Spokane that a new strike has been made on the Tamarack-Carlyle properties of the Richmond-Yukon Copper Company. A Spokane message to R. P. Clark & Co. said to-day. This strike is reported as the biggest one in the camp, with the ore containing boronite and extending over an width of 25 feet.

SATURDAY, MARCH 12

Good and evil planetary influences contend to-day, according to astrology, which finds the configuration conducive to careful living.

Merchants and all who are interested in commercial matters should benefit under this rule which presages great profits to persons here in Canada.

This year of 1927 is to be marked by gigantic undertakings of every sort and will add to the prestige of this country, it is prophesied.

Women are to develop remarkable talents as financiers and to be prepared to take over immense projects, if the stars are rightly read.

Clubs and organizations of women are to be recognized as factors in national affairs to render important service, it is prophesied.

While there will be wars and rumors of wars in Europe, the seers say that the United States will remain aloof from active participation, except to protect American citizens.

There is to be a purifying of this country, a housecleaning in which political corruption and criminal organization will be eliminated, the seers predict.

Again it is foretold that the price of food and raw materials will rise rapidly and that the cost of living will increase greatly.

For months astrologers have counseled thrift and now they emphasize the admonitions uttered previously. Educators and educational institutions now come under a power that tends toward amazing development and increase in the number of students.

This country is on the verge of an expansion as an art and literary centre which will astonish the whole world, the seers prophesy.

Persons whose birthdate it is has the forecast of prosperous lives for friendly stars guide them. They may be too generous for their own best interests.

COMPLETE INVESTIGATION OF B.C. WATER POWER FOR IMMEDIATE FUTURE

Competent Officer Will Be Appointed to Make Survey for Government, Pattullo Tells Liberal Convention

By Times Staff Representative

Vancouver, March 11.—All British Columbia's water power resources will be surveyed during the next year, so that the Province may lay down a permanent power policy for the future. This was the answer of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, to the Provincial Liberal Party Convention here yesterday when it passed a resolution in favor of such an investigation. Supporting the resolution as moved by W. McK. Ivel, of Victoria, Mr. Pattullo announced that he would shortly appoint a competent officer to carry out the most exhaustive water power inquiry possible.

Pending this investigation, Mr. Pattullo urged the convention to go slow in advocating anything like the public ownership of all electrical power in the Province, as suggested by Mr. Ivel.

The power resolution ran as follows: "Whereas it is essential for industrial development in this Province that hydro-electric power shall be available at a price comparable to other industrial regions.

"Therefore be it resolved, that this convention recommends that a thorough investigation of the whole hydro-electric industry and the people of the Province as a whole may be assured of power, light and other public utility services at the lowest possible cost.

"And be it further resolved that this convention emphatically endorses the action of the Provincial Government in placing a reserve on the Chico River and tributaries, with a probable capacity of 1,000,000 horse-power, for investigation by the Government."

NATURAL ASSETS

Mr. Ivel pointed out that British Columbia, a high-wage Province, had to compete with cheap labor. On this account it should take advantage of all its natural assets, and one of the chief of these was water power.

"Power is a monopoly and we should control it and be able to sell it to all users on a fair and equitable basis," Mr. Ivel declared, opposing the alienation of power to any individual so as to prevent the exploitation of the masses.

Mr. Pattullo declared water powers formed a problem of great magnitude. He added, however, that the power situation here was utterly different to that in Ontario, as mentioned by Mr. Ivel, because of the sparse population of this Province.

"Any scheme which did not contemplate taking over the facilities of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, would not be an efficient scheme," the Minister warned. "This is so because if you had a public-owned system the parts tributary to large centres would pay but you would have to lose in outlying districts."

While not opposed in principle to public ownership of power, Mr. Pattullo warned the convention of the magnitude of the proposals which would involve the expenditure of at least $200,000,000 for a start and much more later. The Government, he added, would be advised to carry out the spirit of the Ivel resolution.

POTENTIAL POWER

Mr. Pattullo reiterated his recent announcement that a potential water power of 1,000,000 horsepower had been discovered in the Lillooet district and that a reserve had been placed on it. The size of this power could be realized, he said, when it was known that only 297,000 horse power was being developed in the Province now, while the publicly-owned system of Ontario only developed 900,000 horse power.

"We plan a complete investigation of our water powers for the immediate future," said Mr. Pattullo. "We shall designate a thoroughly competent officer to investigate the whole question this year. He will visit Manitoba where a publicly-owned power system is operated under a commission and where, according to our information this system is not making money."

The Minister declared emphatically in favor of a system whereby power rates here would be comparable to those in any part of the world.

"We should not embark on an undertaking involving a cost of $200,000,000 until we know we are on safe ground," Mr. Pattullo advised. "With the general principle of the resolution I am in hearty accord."

WARNS AGAINST HASTE

Premier Oliver added a warning against hasty action on a project so vast as public ownership of power, recalling the Province's costly experience with ill-considered schemes in the past.

Mr. Ivel corrected Mr. Pattullo, declaring the Manitoba power system paid satisfactorily and provided power rates far lower than those in effect in British Columbia.

Charles Woodward, M.P.P. for Vancouver, attacked Mr. Pattullo's handling of the Campbell River power. Although a Canadian company had been ready to develop this resource the Minister, he said, had handed it over to a United States concern.

This brought a prompt and characteristically vigorous reply from Mr. Pattullo. He explained that the Canadian company to which Mr. Woodward referred had held the Campbell River power rights for many years without developing them. Finally after he had satisfied himself that the company could not develop these resources he had given it a year to start actual work. When the company had failed to proceed he had cancelled the water rights after allowing altogether thirteen extensions. His judgment, he pointed out, had been vindicated immediately by the action of a strong United States concern in entering the field with a vast pulp and paper scheme involving $15,000,000 as an investment in its first paper mill unit.

"I have nothing to apologize for in the cancelling of the Campbell River rights," Mr. Pattullo declared. "There is no use being foolish. We must welcome United States capital and treat it fairly when it comes here. I say that ninety per cent. of the money spent by United States com-

Groundless Gauthier Charge Have Served to Bind Liberals, He Says

Minister of Works Tells Convention of Road Problems

(By Times Staff Representative) Vancouver, March 11.—Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, upon whom Conservatives in the Legislature have been concentrating their campaign fund attacks, was given a tremendous ovation by the Provincial Liberal Party convention in session here yesterday.

As Dr. Sutherland came up to the platform to speak, Capt. Ian Mackenzie, M.P.P., sprang to the front and declared: "It is on Dr. Sutherland that the Conservatives have been making their attacks. We no more honest, no whiter man ever served the public of British Columbia."

WONDERFUL TRIBUTE

The declaration brought the delegates to their feet with thundering cheers—a tribute which lasted for several minutes, and evidently affected the Minister deeply.

"As far as the charges against me are concerned I don't care a snap of the fingers for myself," Dr. Sutherland declared. "But I do care because they cast a slur not only on my family but on all Liberals."

"It may be because I am good natured, but I have men, friends of the party and others coming into my office and asking me to help them in different ways. In serving the public if I can do a good turn for any man I think it is my duty to do so."

"That man," he said, referring to J. A. Gauthier, "was clever. He was introduced to me as a man of substance with good family connections. All I got for him was an ordinary business letter of introduction. I saw him for only fifteen minutes altogether, and if all the men to whom I gave a letter of introduction went crooked I would have a lot to answer for."

"Dr. Sutherland remarked that the companies here will be left in British Columbia."

Independents to Back Fruit Marketing Law

Penticton, March 11.—Independents to support the new Marketing of Fruits Act.

This decision was arrived at during a two days' session of representatives from every section of the valley at Kelowna. Only one shipping firm was unrepresented. Instead of pooling, however, growers will receive monthly payments for their products, which will be purchased outright or handled for the growers on a commission basis. In any case, disposal will be in the hands of the growers themselves.

PERMANENT POLICY

This Province must take stock of its power resources now and lay down a permanent policy for the future, M. B. Jackson, K.C., declared, supporting the Ivel resolution and endorsing the policy of the Government.

LEADING LIBERALS FRAME RESOLUTIONS AT BIG CONVENTION

Vancouver, March 11.—The resolutions committee, whose deliberations are largely guiding the work of the Provincial Liberal convention here, is as follows:

Hon. T. D. Pattullo; Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.P.P.; Skeena; Gen. V. W. Odium, M.P.P.; Vancouver; D. MacPherson, M.P.P.; Grand Forks; Greenwood; Alex. Henderson, K.C.; Vancouver; A. D. MacFarlane, Victoria; H. J. Sullivan, New Westminster; A. D. Patterson, M.P.P.; Fraser Valley; R. H. Gale, West Kootenay; Mayor C. J. Roberts, Cranbrook; Cleland, Comox-Alberni; C. M. Stewart, Ocean Falls; W. A. Macdonald, Vancouver South; Dr. K. C. McDonald, Yale; J. M. MacLean, Cariboo; J. E. Andrews, Kamloops; George Hay, North Vancouver; William Melior, Nanaimo; Mayor J. A. McDonald, Nelson; W. M. Brown, Prince Rupert; C. R. Bishop, Victoria; Walter Murray, Vancouver; J. E. Morris, Richmond-Point Grey; Mrs. Stuart Henderson, Victoria; Mrs. John Keen, Kootenay; Miss E. W. Johnson, Burnaby; Mrs. J. Finlayson and Mrs. R. E. Scott, Vancouver; and Mrs. R. M. Murray, South Vancouver.

Gauthier charges had stirred the Liberal Party and probably had been of great benefit to the party as a whole.

"I understand," he added, "that Twigg has been repudiated by his own friends in Victoria."

After discussing matters until after midnight the committee adjourned until 7.30 o'clock this evening, when a group of typical examples of the effect of suggested changes will be presented by Assessor Sewell for study by the councillors.

The councillors debated various aspects of the problem for three hours, the chief stumbling block to agreement being attainment of a basis equitable alike to acreage and subdivided lands, which would accord with the Municipal Act.

A programme of hard-surfacing, he said, would be a sound economic proposition; saving motor car owners large sums in wear and tear. He added that the big road programme carried out by the Government was based entirely on the gasoline tax, and did not affect other taxes at all.

The United States army is one of the few institutions in the world that operates on a cash basis. All its bills are paid monthly.

SAANICH TAXING METHODS DISCUSSED

Council Will Continue Debate of Assessment Problems To-night

Sitting as an unofficial committee to examine problems incidental to the reassessment of the municipality, the Saanich council last night discussed policies to be adhered to in providing a new assessment roll.

A brief docket of urgent business was speedily disposed of, to permit of informal discussion of assessment policies.

The councillors agreed that Assessor Sewell should be entrusted with the actual reconstruction of the roll, with the assistance of the municipal office staff, deciding unanimously that an independent assessment should not be repeated.

Assessor Sewell asked for guidance as to the principles to be adopted in arriving at values to be placed on land. He urged that thirty or more properties, scattered throughout Saanich, should be given a virgin land value by the councillors, as "keystone" properties. With such guiding, the task of allotting equitable values to surrounding properties would be simplified, he advised, pointing out that theoretically, the reassessment is to be performed by the Court of Revision.

The councillors debated various aspects of the problem for three hours, the chief stumbling block to agreement being attainment of a basis equitable alike to acreage and subdivided lands, which would accord with the Municipal Act.

CONVENTION SHOWS FULL CONFIDENCE IN GOVERNMENTS

Liberalism in Canada Given Enthusiastic Endorsement By Convention

By Times Staff Representative

Vancouver, March 11.—Unanimous and enthusiastic endorsement of the Federal and Provincial Governments was registered by the Provincial Liberal Party convention here yesterday.

A vote of confidence in the Mackenzie King Government was moved by Dr. K. C. McDonald, of Vernon, and seconded by J. W. de B. Farris, K.C., of Vancouver.

Archibute Teetzel of Vancouver moved and Mrs. Stanley Brown of Vancouver, seconded a vote of confidence in the Provincial Government, which was also carried.

TRIBUTE TO OLIVER

During the discussion of these resolutions Attorney-General Manson and Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Finance, paid a high tribute to Premier Oliver.

Mr. Manson declared the British Columbia Government had an uncommonly good record. Many governments had fallen in recent years, but the Oliver Government had survived, he said. In all major matters there was no party of Canada better served by its Government than British Columbia, he affirmed.

"I ask you," he added, "if muckraking is to be any answer to the Government, presided over by this grand old man, the Premier?"

STRONG CABINET

The present Cabinet could disappear and be replaced from members of the House with an equally good Cabinet and even that second Cabinet would be wiped out and a third instituted better than anything the Conservatives could select from their present membership, Dr. MacLean declared.
